FROM GREAT EXUMA TO LANGKAWI:
AROUND THE WORLD CANDLELIGHT DINNER AT FOUR SEASONS

George Town, Great Exuma – March 3, 2009 – Four Seasons Resort Great Exuma will be holding a Candlelight Dinner on March 28 in the Il Cielo restaurant as part of a novel and fun event that will take place in cities around the world for over 24 hours. Four Seasons Resort Great Exuma will join 35 other sister properties in creating a chain of candlelight dinners circumnavigating the globe.

With superior service and heavenly scents emanating from the kitchen, dining at Il Cielo is always delightful. With the glow of candles illuminating the room and stretching from sea to sea, it promises to be enchanting.

The idea was launched on March 31st 2007 when Four Seasons Hotel Sydney turned off its lights at 8:00 pm to observe Earth Hour, a World Wildlife Fund initiative. Inspired by this gesture, for the third year in a row, a collection of Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts are joining in and inviting local patrons and guests to dine by candlelight as an enjoyable and delicious way to observe Earth Hour together. In the world over 80 countries and 750 cities have already committed to Earth Hour 2009.

The sequence of candlelight dinners will start at Four Seasons Hotel Sydney on March 28 at 8:30 pm local time and make its way west across the planet. The following Four Seasons Hotels and Resorts will be participating in this intimate observance of Earth Hour:
